The Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

Yesterday Les Dirks gave me the briefing which you so kindly authorized. It was a most exciting day for me. I could never have envisaged what extraordinary progress has been made not only since our Grosvenor Street days during the war, but since I left the Agency early in 1973. Wonders will never cease!

Again, may I thank you most warmly for making this possible.

With best regards,

Cordially,

Richard Helms
